

Beautiful SOUNDS AND SETTINGS AT SYMPHONY HALL AND TANGLEWOOD

You'll encounter some of the happiest people in Massachusetts at Symphony Hall and Tanglewood. World-class musical performances in stunning concert venues are a winning combination for both the musicians themselves and for the attentive audiences who seek out music and ambiance of the highest caliber.

Start with the Boston Pops Spring season at Symphony Hall, which runs from May 10 to June 8. This is a highly-anticipated annual occasion that brings music lovers to Boston year after year. The acoustically brilliant concert hall, built in 1900 by the famed architectural firm McKim, Mead & White, enhances the thrilling experience of the beloved Boston Pops. Conductor Keith Lockhart leads the Pops through a breathtaking spectrum of music – from jazz and Broadway musicals to Disney hits and movie soundtracks to gospel, rock, and more.

Concerts like the Spring Boston Pops series make Symphony Hall a perfect setting for family gatherings, company parties, alumni nights, and school outings.

During the summer, a whole different experience awaits visitors at Tanglewood. Led by Music Director Andris Nelsons, the Boston Symphony Orchestra carries on an enduring musical tradition that started in 1936 when Tanglewood became the summer home of the BSO.

Located in the heart of the Berkshires in the charming town of Lenox, Tanglewood is considered one of the most evocative and enjoyable outdoor music venues in the world. The Tanglewood grounds have long been a prestigious stop for the world's best conductors and performers of classical music, baroque, folk, country, world music, and more.

A special feature of Tanglewood is its beautiful 500-acre campus. Listeners are welcome to bring lawn chairs or blankets and have a picnic on the grass as their favorite artists perform. Tanglewood is both casual and classy, and the easy-going atmosphere and the beauty of the surrounding hills makes it a popular setting for company retreats, family reunions, wedding parties, and various group activities.

Two concert venues on opposite sides of Massachusetts — the bustling Symphony Hall and serene Tanglewood — offer a musical experience listeners cherish forever.

Contact the Group Sales Office for more information on how you can experience this magical formula of perfect sound and beautiful settings.

groupsales@bso.org | 617-638-9345

bso.org/group-sales

Book Your Group for Tanglewood this Summer!

Contact GroupSales@bso.org | 617-638-9345

When reserving 15 or more tickets, mention this ad to receive a voucher for 2 complimentary tickets to the 2024–25 BSO Season (exclusions may apply).

Book Your Group for the Pops this Spring!

Contact GroupSales@bso.org | 617-638-9345

When reserving 15 or more tickets, mention this ad to receive a voucher for 2 complimentary tickets to the 2024–25 BSO Season (exclusions may apply).